Iowa Session

The Pawn Industry and Law Enforcement Monitoring

Senior Police Officer Rich DeJoode, Des Moines Police Department Pawn Shop/Gun Unit, will provide training related to Pawn Shop operations, how law enforcement monitoring programs are used to recover stolen property and provide suggestions on how you can utilize Pawn Shops in your fraud investigations.

Lunch will be catered by After Grace Foods

Nebraska Session

Cell Tower Technology

We have learned in past training about the importance of considering the data that may be available on cell phones such as iPhones, but what about those phones that don't have recoverable data? Joel Sacks, Senior Investigator with Fire Investigations Specialists Inc., will provide you with information on how data from cell towers, the conduit for making calls and texts, could be a source of information that could be an important part of your fraud investigations.

Registration

Please email us at board@ia-neiasiu.com with your intentions to attend the lunch and learns.

RSVP for the Iowa training as soon as possible so we can inform the caterer of our numbers.

**Non-members are asked to pay for lunch in advance or make arrangements to pay at the door*****

Attendance is restricted to those individuals involved with the investigation of insurance fraud or other related crimes. The IA-NE IASIU reserves the right to refuse to admit any person whose actions or purpose is contrary to the mission of the IA-NE IASIU and its members.
